5.	Public Comment: This portion of the meeting is open to the public to speak on all matters on the agenda and within the jurisdiction and control of the Tahoe Douglas Fire Protection Insurance Advisory Committee. Public comment will be limited to three minutes per person. The Open Meeting Law does not expressly prohibit responses to public comments by committee members. However, responses from committee members to issues raised in public comment could become deliberative on a matter without notice to the public. To ensure that the public has notice of all matters the committee members may discuss and on the advice of legal counsel, the committee members may choose not to respond to public comment except to correct factual inaccuracies, to request that staff look into the matter or to ask that the issue be placed on a future agenda. Public comment of three minutes per person will be heard on individual action items on the agenda. If a person involved with a project intends to submit additional documentation to the committee in support of that project it is requested that they bring a minimum of 10 copies. Public comment must be limited to matters that are within the jurisdiction and control of the committee members.
